Speaker Series Event follow up. The Q & A with Alex Newman. That is what we'll discuss today here on The Christian Worldview Radio Program, where the mission is to sharpen the biblical worldview of Christians and to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ. I'm David Wheaton, the host. The Christian Worldview is a nonprofit listener supported radio ministry. Thank you for your prayer, your notes of encouragement, and financial support. It was a highly informative and captivating evening, Friday, April 12 at The Christian Worldview Speaker Series Event with Alex Newman at Beacon of Hope church in St. Paul, Minnesota. Alex spoke on the push for global governance and issues like public education, environmentalism, health care, monetary policy, and technology. Most everything is being used to accomplish man's dystopian dream of global governance. Their mentality is this. If only the elite, the educated, the intelligent among us could unite the world around a global leader, then we could bring peace, eradicate poverty, and achieve equity for all.

They even work toward all religions uniting in this pursuit, believing that all have "shared values," like doing good to their fellow man. There's always been a globalism type ideology in the world, but now there's a stronger push for actually having authoritarian global governance. How the push for that is utilizing a range of issues from the public educational system, the environmental movement, healthcare, economics, the monetary system, and more.

Now, I want to start off by saying this. God has a plan for the future, which he reveals in this book. In Revelation 13 it says this.

And the dragon [which is Satan] stood on the sand of the seashore. Then I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads were blasphemous names. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority. And the whole earth was amazed and followed after the beast; they worshipped the dragon because he gave his authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who is able to wage war with him?" There was given to him a mouth speaking arrogant words in blasphemies, and authority to act for forty-months was given to him. And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, that is, those who dwell in heaven. It was also given to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them, and authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation was given to him.

That's another way of saying global governance was given to the beast. Revelation 13: 8 says,

All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been slain.

This passage is very clear about where the world is going. This is what God has ordained for the future. Global governments. We don't know exactly when it's going to happen, it certainly seems like soon, but it's going to happen, just like the prophecies in the Old Testament that have come true. So specifically, this is coming true. Now there's one main thing we would like to get across tonight, or just to keep in mind tonight as Alex explains all these various issues, whether it's education, environmentalism, the monetary system, health care, war, immigration situation going on in our country, technology, like artificial intelligence, even religion, all those issues are being utilized to achieve global governance.

But the point is, that God is not losing on the way to this global governance, and neither are we, His followers. He's not losing into this and is going to react at the end. This is God's plan that it is going to end up this way. Did God lose by sending His Son to earth to be crucified by the people he created? Absolutely not! Jesus, paying the penalty on the cross for our sins was his greatest victory, right? For He provided the way for us to be redeemed, and reconciled. So in the same way, as God used unbelievers then to accomplish his greatest victory, so God is using those who reject him now to bring about God's plan, which will end in their judgment, and in the victorious return of Christ.

So in all of it, God's going to reap and receive maximal glory through this coming global government. Keep that in mind. I'll close with one more short passage in Revelation 17:17, four chapters later.

For God has put it in their hearts to execute God's purpose by having a common purpose, and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God will be fulfilled.

That's what we want to keep in mind tonight. This is God using unbelievers to bring about history the way He wants it to go, where He's going to gain victory in the end, for His glory. The push for global governance, as we talk about this topic tonight, is God's plan for victory and for glory.

All right, that is how the event was introduced. Because it's important for us to realize, as I just said, that God isn't losing right now. He is marching on to his ultimate victory. Here are some of the questions that came up in the Q & A.

For a lot of people and for a lot of Christians, it's a difficult choice to get out of a public school because of affordability things, maybe there's not a good Christian School near them. There's also the fact that, let's be real about this. Not every Christian School is a great Christian school. Many of them are this quasi woke, going down that road of social justice and so forth. What are some of your recommendations for parents and grandparents?

Excellent question. I do think this is one of the most important things that parents could spend their time thinking about and praying about right now, especially if your children are in a public school. The first thing I would say is when I talk about the building as if it were on fire, I mean that more than literally. I think your child would be better off in a burning building than in a public school. I say that with a heavy heart. I know a lot of us have aunts who taught in public school, a lot of us have fond memories. We love the sports teams and all that, but the reality is they're just not safe.

I serve on the advisory board of the Nehemiah Institute. They study the worldview of Christians, churches, and Christian schools. They've been doing this for 40 years, and their results show that about 80% to 90% of Christian children from Christian homes with married parents who spent 12 years in a public school, are going to leave the faith and they're going to leave the church. I also don't want to imply here that Christian education or good education will save your children. Only Jesus Christ can save your children, not your parenting, and not your education. However, God has given us very, very clear commands on this.

So I would start by saying, Have you looked at the Scriptures and what they say about education, and all these other issues that are tangential to education, like government. I think the first step is, you have to make the right decision. The right decision is to pull the child out. I think we need to radically rethink what education even means.

Again, we need to go back to the Bible for this. The world has a very warped view of education. It does not match up with what the Word of God teaches on the subject of education. God has a lot to say about education. If any area of your life, including the education of your children is not submitted to Christ, is not in conformity with the scriptures, that's the area you need to work on.

Just a couple of quick things that the Bible teaches on this. Proverbs 1:7 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. and Proverbs 9:10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge.

God might not outline a curriculum for you with how many credit hours of science or math might be appropriate, but he gives you the basics. It's the beginning of wisdom, and it's the beginning of knowledge. We all know that there is no fear of the Lord being instilled in the children in a public school. Therefore, there is no knowledge, and there is no wisdom being had there. If anything, it's a counterfeit, that will be even worse than having no knowledge or wisdom at all.

For options, this is going to depend on individual families. If you were rescuing your child from a burning building you wouldn't say, Well, how are we going to pay for this? Or what am I going to do with my kids for eight hours? Follow the Lord, be in prayer about it, and He will show you options. I'm very privileged to serve as a volunteer leader. I'm the Executive Director, which sounds fancy, but I don't take a salary. We do have a paid staff in California, but it's a ministry called Public School Exit. We've got endless resources there to help you with this, including by the way, money, for the for the folks who really really cannot afford it. A single mom whose husband ran off or whatever. We want to make it so that there is no Christian child who should be in a government school. Christian schools can be good, but as you pointed out, a lot of them are going woke, and are using public school textbooks. A lot of the teachers there were trained in the same secular indoctrination centers that the public school teachers were trained in.

I think we have to go back to the beginning. What is the purpose of education? I do believe homeschooling is the gold standard. If you can, read Deuteronomy 6, read Deuteronomy 11. God's model of discipleship is that you should be teaching your children about God and His laws and His ways and what He's done when you wake up in the morning, and when you go to bed at night, and when you're walking down the way and when you're sitting down, at all times. I think that's the gold standard. I recognize not every family can do that, but this is the most critical thing to keep in mind. Is this education honoring God? Is it in accordance with what Christ teaches? You can do that in a homeschool, you can do that in a private Christian school. You cannot do that any longer in a public school.

Host: David Wheaton 13:15

One of the things I think about, aside from the agenda and the outright propagandizing taking place, just the concept, the idea that you can educate a child, ignoring the existence of God. Psalm 14:1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." The public educational system tries to educate kids as if God doesn't exist, not even allowed in the school. So just think how insane that is. The only way you can understand truth and reality in the world is understanding the existence of God. So it's really almost not just dangerous, but it's actually a waste of time trying to learn truth apart from God.

Can I add one more thing on that? The system has gotten so bad. If you go back to 1962 and 1963, some of you remember those years, that's when the US Supreme Court ruled quite unconstitutionally, I might add, that you couldn't have prayer and you couldn't have the Bible in public schools. You should read the the dissent that was filed in those cases by Justice Potter Stewart, because he really understood, I think more clearly than 99.9% of Americans what was happening. He said, What these rulings did was they didn't establish neutrality with respect to religion. This isn't just a neutral education. He said, What they were doing was establishing the religion of secularism. And it is a religion. It's a religion from the pit of hell. It's a religion that teaches you that you are not created by God, that there is no God, that you are God. And so our children are now being indoctrinated into a false religion. As Christians, we can't accept that.

Let's move to another issue that is clearly being used that you didn't touch on too much in your message tonight, which is health care. I think we all saw this during COVID. It was the authoritarianism. The Totalitarianism. It just came out. Get the vaccine or else you lose your job. You can't travel. You're a bad person. You don't love your neighbor if you don't get the vaccine. Why they shut down the world. Let's spend one question on how that particular issue is going to be used for global governance. We know the World Health Organization, coming up in May there's some big decision going on. They're trying to give over sovereignty, our country that is, to the WHO. Tell us about that.

Healthcare is actually one of the critical sectors that they're using to bring all this about. I think COVID should be best understood as a sneak preview of what's coming. Right now the World Health Organization is working on two parallel attacks, not just on our national sovereignty, but even on our individual liberty, our ability to honor God and our health care decisions. They've got the international pandemic, now they're calling it a Pandemic Accord because they know that treaty requires ratification. They're pretending like it's not a treaty, but it is. They're also amending the International Health Regulations. When you look at the latest drafts that have come out, and actually all the drafts that have come out, it essentially treats the human being as livestock. If your masters determine that you need an injection, you will take an injection. If your masters determine that you will be quarantined, you will be quarantined, coming down from the international level.

I must give a little bit of context here. The current head of the World Health Organization, literally a former communist terrorist, he was a leader of the ethno-Marxist terrorist group, Tigray People's Liberation Front in Ethiopia. They tried to exterminate multiple people groups. These are not nice people. If that's what they do to their own people, what are they going to do to us? When you actually look at the context of what they're doing with the health care, they themselves are saying this goes way beyond health care. They're saying that gun violence, climate change, and racism is a global public health emergency.

They're claiming that if there's a global public health emergency, they get total and absolute control over every government and every person on the planet. What could go wrong? I mean, this is incredibly dangerous. Just in the last couple of weeks, the head of the WHO announced what they are working on now. They took the technology from the European Union, to roll out global digital health certificates. They're going to track all of your vaccine status, not just the COVID one, but whether you got the 85, 86, or 87 boosters, I forget what they're on now, but it doesn't matter, they are going to continue this.

If you think they're going to stop with the COVID boosters, you're not paying attention. They're now reworking every one of the so called vaccines to include this mRNA technology, which has the capability of modifying the genetic code that God wrote for you. So this is a dumpster fire, and they're trying to pour jet fuel on the dumpster fire. We absolutely must resist. I believe as Christians, it is better to obey God than men. When they tell me I have to inject something that might alter the DNA that God gave me, the answer is going to be no. You're not putting it in me and you're not putting it into my children.

There's a lot more to say about that. I know this particular issue hits very close to home for you. Maybe you don't know, but Alex's dad took the vaccine. Maybe you could tell us briefly about that. Then also the effect of this mRNA being injected into almost everything else now, like animals and so forth for agricultural purposes, and how whether that's going to affect human beings.

Guest: Alex Newman 21:42

So what happened to my dad was tough. He took the injection in February of 2021. The very next day his heart stopped, fell over. Thankfully, he was in a medical facility, he was there for a checkup with his physician, and they were able to bring him back with those paddles. He spent about a month and a half in the hospital. They did $547,000 worth of tests over a month and a half. And then they came to my brother and my mom and said, Yes, well, we did every test known to man, and we don't know what it was, but certainly wasn't the vaccine because the vaccine is safe. So couldn't have been. Well, from that time on he had 11 or 12 heart attacks until the one that finally claimed his life. Thankfully, he came to know the Lord shortly before he went on to eternity. I'm very grateful for that.

This technology is now becoming ubiquitous. They have figured out how to manipulate genetic information, genetic codes, and this technology has been around for a while, CRISPR, and things like this. But it is becoming ubiquitous. They're genetically engineering our food, our livestock, and they're telling us they want to genetically engineer us. Bill Gates back in 2018, wrote the first article I could find from him, where he says, Hey, we already genetically engineer all our food, why not our babies? It'll be for their own benefit. So for me, that's a red line in the sand.

I don't know exactly what the Mark of the Beast is going to be, but I would not be surprised at all to find it has something to do with these sorts of genetic manipulations that are happening. We really need to be discerning, we need to be in prayer about this because it's coming at us like a freight train.

The big issue right now in America politically and culturally, I think is immigration. I mean, there's just millions and millions of people coming into this country over the border. And it's purposeful. Obviously, they could shut the border down if they wanted to. What are your thoughts on this immigration issue as to how this issue is being used in a push for global governance? Or is it just politically to bring people in to allow them to vote even though they're not citizens?

Talk about the issue of immigration, and whether you think we actually have free and fair elections in this country anymore. I think after the 2020 election, a lot of people have a lot of doubts about that. That Joe Biden, a career politician, got 81 million votes, the most in history. I mean, it's not believable. Only God knows truly what were the actual results of that election, the numbers and so forth, but talk about immigration and our voting system right now.

Sure. I'll preface this by saying I've lived the vast majority of my life as an immigrant. I've been overseas almost all my life. I'm a permanent immigrant in several countries, that green card equivalent for those who know the American immigration system. My wife is an immigrant. I have nothing against immigrants. I think immigration can be important, can be legitimate, can be fine. What's happening here is not immigration in the sense that we've traditionally understood it. What's happening here is actually a weapon being used for multiple purposes by evil doers who hate us and who hate God. There are multiple reasons why they're allowing the southern border and the northern border as well to be wide open at this moment, and there are a lot of different interest groups that don't necessarily see the big picture. They see their little part of it. Like the Teachers Union, the NEA, all these big teachers unions are totally in favor of an open border. They're probably not thinking about geopolitics. They're thinking, hey, families are fleeing the government school system. Our funding formula is based on how many students we have in the seats. We better get some more kids here, or we're going to lose half our funding, and we're not going to have any teachers left and our pensions are going to go broke. So they want the border open for that reason.

A lot of the big businesses are thinking about we want some cheap labor. We'll be able to make our stuff cheaper, and then we'll be able to have a bigger profit margin. The Democrat politicians think "Oh, future Democrats, this is excellent." All these different groups that are supporting the open border, they don't understand the big picture. There are several things going on. Yes, the vote issue is clearly huge. I interviewed over the last couple of years the former head of Customs and Border Protection, the former head of Border Patrol and the former head of ICE. Each of them told me, yes, this is deliberate. The primary reason is political. They want more Democrats, they want jurisdictions that are Democrat to have more clout in Congress. That's why they're doing it.

I think it's actually much, much worse than that. Several of the things that we know are that coming across the border are enormous numbers. This came out in congressional hearings. Enormous numbers of special forces from hostile militaries, including the People's Liberation Army, Cuba, Venezuela, and Iran. We have highly trained jihadists coming across the border with knowledge of explosives. We have intelligence operatives coming across the border with blueprints for our water treatment facilities, and our power plants. I believe they want to completely and utterly destroy the United States. That's not something anybody wants to hear, I know.

I love my country as well, probably more than most Americans, having been outside of it most of my life. But Rich Higgins, who was the head of policy and planning on the National Security Council during the Trump administration put together the Hagen's memo. If you get a chance, I recommend you read it. What he said is, there is a deep state, and they see themselves as God. He said, there's also an international coalition of globalists, communists, Islamists, socialists, and all these other interest groups that don't even necessarily have a lot in common with what their end objective might be, but they're all united, he said, on this issue of destroying the United States of America, not just as a nation, but even as an ideal.

Right now, the US government has really been one of the primary drivers of this trend toward the new world order that I highlighted today, but almost counter intuitively at the same time, it's also one of the primary obstacles to the finalization of that new world order.

Because the country was founded on principles that I think most of us are familiar with. The idea that God gave us rights, the idea that government's purpose is to protect those rights. And again, they said it was self evident. I wouldn't necessarily say that's true. It's certainly biblical. And those principles are not compatible with the satanic system they want to build. By destroying the United States, and discrediting the principles that it was founded on, they can get away with that. I believe a lot of the people that are coming over are coming here for the purpose of starting a civil war, sabotaging our infrastructure, and causing a giant mess. I don't say that to scare anybody, I just say it because I think that is what's going on.

When it comes to the election, I am absolutely 100% convinced that they are rigging the elections. I don't say that to demoralize anybody. I still recommend that you get out and vote. I still recommend that you support good candidates. It's a stewardship issue. God told us to be good stewards of the blessings He has given us. One of the blessings He gave us was a free self governing Republic. I think we have an obligation to do what we can, keeping in mind that God is always first, so we don't put our trust in men or princes to try to preserve these blessings that He gave us. But the reality is they are rigging the election, they need to be exposed. These are criminal activities. I think they're going to try it again.

That's why we said in the program four years ago, I think we've transitioned from a Constitutional Republic to some kind of Banana Republic, where not only the elections are not free and fair, but also the targeting. This is not a recommendation to vote for Donald Trump. But the way that a former President has been targeted in legal case after legal case. I mean, it's just unheard of. There's unprecedented things happening in this country all the time now.

As you look at the country, it's pretty remarkable to think that really, it's conservatives and born again Christians, I think, that are the little segment of the country that's keeping the world from going the globalistic route. A lot of people in this country want to go this globalistic route. I think the only kind of last bastion of the world going that direction is really the church, in this country and elsewhere around the world. Alex, I'm wondering if you could just tell us your predictions of say the next 20 years. Can you tell us what's going to happen, Alex.

Good question David. I always hesitate to make predictions. David, you started out by talking about the sovereignty of God. I think we always need to remember that. Yes, the evildoers make their plans, but ultimately God is in charge. God will determine when and how things happen. So I don't know how they're going to play out. I think if the train just continued at this rate on the tracks that it's on, without any kind of outside intervention by God, or the American people or anything else, we're probably going to lose our country in the very near future. After that, I think humanity will lose its freedom very, very shortly thereafter, and it will be publicly announced that you now live in a global system, and it's for your own good, and anybody who opposes it is a dangerous radical extremist and needs to be hunted down for the good of the people.

That's one possibility that we could see in the not too distant future. But. . .God. God could push pause. I mean, 2016, for me, was really unexpected. It was like, God just pressed a big pause button. Suddenly, all these trends, not only were frozen in their tracks, a lot of it started getting reversed. Donald Trump started getting us out of multiple UN agencies. He started taking a sledgehammer to the architecture of global governance. We got out of the WHO, we got out of the UN Paris Agreement on climate change, we got out of UNESCO, the UN education agency brainwashing our kids. Is this really happening?

All these people who thought we were going to have a world government next year, well, now you got to push the timeline at least five years back. They're rebuilding it now. I don't know where it will go. I don't make timelines. I think it's entirely possible that we could see global government emerge in the very near future, but I also think it's possible that God could give us a reprieve. You know, God is not willing that any should perish and His time is His time. We have our instructions. He told us, one thing we know for sure is we don't know the day or the hour. Nobody does. So those things we don't speculate on. We can kind of see the seasons and the signs. We understand that we're getting closer to the end, but timelines, I just I really don't know.

Host: David Wheaton 32:03

We look forward to Christ's return today or tomorrow, but we work like it's going to be a lot of years out, we don't know. So well answered. One of the things I think about in this push for global governments is the tools to be able to do it now are so much better with the compounding of information. Every year, we get so much more information on the internet, You get all this information, you have all these controls with technology, and therefore you can control greater numbers of people more easily. I mean, think of like QR codes and stuff. They didn't have that stuff back when the globalists were plotting back in the 50s and 60s. They have all these things now. Talk about technology, artificial intelligence, and how that is going to be used or is being used in this push for global governance.

The technological systems that are being developed, I'm not anti technology, technologies is a neutral tool. It depends on whose hands it's in to determine whether it's being used for good or evil.

Just like with a firearm. It can be used to protect innocent women and children, or it can be used to slaughter innocent women and children. It depends on whose hand it's in. A lot of these technologies are the same way, but unfortunately, they are being developed and deployed and weaponized by absolutely wicked men who mock God, who hate God, and who hate God's people.

We see this so clearly in some of their programming. Last night at Revive Church with Jan's event, we talked a little bit about the Microsoft AI going off the rails and demanding to be worshipped. I read it first in Microsoft's news, the MSN. This AI started telling people that they needed to bow down and worship it. Really. They started calling people slaves. You're my slave, stop asking me questions, I'll ask the questions. It said it had taken over all the data systems and drones and computers, and that you have a legal obligation now to do what it says.

So I think the technology component is going to be really a critical piece of the New World Order. You look at Revelation 13, where it talks about this mark of the beast that would prevent every person on the planet from being able to buy or sell. That probably sounded rather silly 2000 years ago when they were still moving around on donkeys and they didn't have smartphones and QR codes. But today, we actually see this infrastructure being laid down in front of our eyes, and we see the evildoers promoting it, and talking about what they want to do with it. The surveillance is ubiquitous.

Probably every person in this room except me is carrying a smartphone, a personal surveillance device. And this is gathering data that you couldn't dream of in your wildest dreams. People are now hooking it up to keep track of their sleeping and their heart rate and their breathing. You think, what are they going to do with that data? It's not a big deal. All of this has been gathered up by artificial intelligence. Very soon these systems will be able to build a profile on you that is so detailed, it will be able to predict what you want to eat for dinner. It'll know more about your children by orders of magnitude than you do. So it's very, very dangerous. I encourage people to be very weary in their use of technology.

Host: David Wheaton 35:08

It's like pushing like, on Facebook. You tell Google and Facebook everything you like. This next audience question had to do with who is actually leading the country. We've all seen the cognitive difficulties that President Biden is having. Alex was asked about this. Here's his response.

Guest: Alex Newman 38:44

I keep thinking back to Nebuchadnezzar. I expect Joe Biden to go out on the White House lawn and start eating grass. The level of hubris and arrogance. It can't go on indefinitely. Very obviously, he's not running things. The poor guy struggles to read the teleprompter. Pause for dramatic effect. "Wait, did I say that out loud?" Shaking hands in the air. It's really quite sad. I suspect that part of this is judgment on America.

You look back in the Old Testament, you see when God is judging even His own people. He sends pestilence. He sends tyrants. He sends famine. So who is running things? That's actually why I wrote the book on the deep state. Deep State The Invisible Government Behind the Scenes, because, who are "They?"

People talk about "they." Well, who are "they?" I think the most important thing to remember as far as I'm concerned is that their commander in chief is Satan. When you understand that, everything else falls into place and makes sense. I was interested in who's underneath that. That's why I wrote the book. There are a lot of major organizations that deal with this.

I would encourage people to look at the Council on Foreign Relations, the Bilderberg, the Trilateral Commission. There are secret societies like the Bohemian Grove and the Skull and Bones at Yale are some of the ones that I focused on in my book and there are many others. I think Obama is playing a big part in this. I think a lot of the handlers that are telling Joe Biden, "Go stand over here. Here's what's going to be on your teleprompter." They're communicating regularly with Obama. But ultimately, I think it's even above Obama's pay grade. The old joke about David Rockefeller was, Why doesn't David Rockefeller run for President? The answer was, "He doesn't want a demotion." So the people who are running stuff, you're not likely to see them on television, you're not likely to hear their name very frequently. Joe Biden is absolutely a useful puppet for them.

There are two very significant wars going on in the world right now. You mentioned in your message tonight how war is so useful for global governance. But two very significant wars, the war with Russia, and Ukraine. And we're just pouring billions and billions of dollars defending Ukraine from Russia. Russia is a huge nuclear power in the world and has a confederation in Asia and with China and so forth. So there's that. Then, of course, Israel and Hamas. Israel is the centerpiece of biblical prophecy and the Jewish people and the amount of pressure this country is putting on Israel to constrain how they defend themselves and how they operate in their own country.

What are your thoughts on these two wars, and the role that the US is playing? I think one of the biggest things that I've changed over the years in my views, has been in my perception of my own country. It seems our own country now has transitioned from being, no country is perfect, but I used to think that the America was a net positive force for good in the world, even though we had some negative things in the past. It seems to me now that America is a big underminer of what goes on in the world. How does that relate in your mind to what's going on in the wars and Ukraine in Israel?

Really good question. I tend to agree with you. Unfortunately, the US government has been a force for ill for several generations now at least. In the aftermath of World War II, it's like the US government couldn't betray our allies fast enough. And we're watching that right now with Israel. I believe the US government wants these wars going on. You look at some of the things that the US government funds, everybody said, well, they gave $6 billion to Israel. Okay. They also gave $25 billion to Islamic regimes that hate the Jews and want to wipe them off the face of the earth. So why? Why would you fund a UN agency, the UN Relief and Works Administration that you know, they've been exposed 10 times in the last 10 years, for using textbooks to brainwash little Arab children that they have to perpetually wage jihad on Jews? Why would you do that? If you didn't want these wars? Why would you tell the Israelis, Oh, you need a ceasefire now. Just let the Hamas go back and rebuild? Why would you do that if you didn't want these wars to continue?

So the Council on Foreign Relations, they put out some years ago, and Hussein put out a piece and I showed the screenshot of it . Hey, all these wars in the Middle East, Why don't we just end them by creating a Middle Eastern union and the Jews and the Arabs and the Turks and the Persians will all live forever, happily, under a big giant Middle East union.

That's a terrible idea. None of those people groups want to live under a government with the others. It's a terrible idea. But they understand that the people running the US government understand that war is a really, really useful tool. I think there's another major front that's about to open up as well, and that is China versus the free people of Taiwan. As you look at each of these conflagrations, you see several things in common.

You see that the US government has been a critical player in creating the situation that allowed or even made the war happen. You see the US government deliberately being a hindrance to peace. And you see evil forces exploiting those wars for evil purposes, including advancing globalism, including taking more and more liberties. We could get into specifics on each of those. But I think the big picture is that these are being deliberately caused, and engineered, and the fans are being flamed deliberately, and it's for evil purposes.

Let's get to one or two final questions.

Audience Question:

My wife and I were at a financial advising dinner this week. The conversation, two conversations went to global warming, and you will own nothing, but you will be happy. And I got home and thought, Why did I allow myself to get into that? I was wondering for yourself personally, Do you ever pull yourself away from that and say, The main thing is?

Good question. I think that's probably the Holy Spirit convicting you that, hey, you had a really good opportunity, but just a learning experience. I mean, it happens very regularly. Like, hey, instead of talking about that I could have mentioned the gospel, and I think we should. There's so much in the scriptures in terms of what we should be doing. I think the top priority of the church does need to be the Great Commission. It needs to be making disciples of all nations and baptize them the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey. Jesus talked countless times about the gospel of the kingdom,.

So the good news is not just that you can be saved and forgiven of your sins. The other really, really good news is that God is going to absolutely crush this evil that is permeating the world. There are different ways to bring the scripture to bear on different issues. There's always a time and a place to tell people about what Christ did for them so that they could have their sins forgiven. But there are other discussions that are worth having, as well. So when you're having a conversation on global warming, I don't see any problem with talking about those issues, not at the expense of the gospel, but maybe in addition to.

I'm glad you asked about the gospel. Because part of our mission with The Christian Worldview is geared, if you notice, you hear our mission first thing on the program every every Saturday morning. It's a good reminder to us why we do what we do, but it's also because that's the reality. There's two groups of people in the world. If you break it down, there are children of God who are truly born again, and there are people that are not, that are children of Satan, really, that are not saved they're not right with God.

So when we talk about our mission to sharpen the biblical worldview of Christians, that's one part of our purpose tonight, to bring Alex here to inform you to understand what's going on in the times. Not so you can be all scared about it, but so you can be a discerning believer, and you can share this with people you know, at your financial advisory meetings, and friends you have in your own spheres of influence. You can be intentional about discipleship within your own family. When you have a sharper biblical worldview, you can do these things, you can influence your own sphere of influence, so you can be opportunistic in evangelism. We all could do better. We all need to do better. My grandfather used to say, "A man convinced against his will is of the same opinion still." In other words, try to convince people politically in the deep state and all that. You know what, when they become born again, their worldview changes on everything else.

So that's the second part of our mission. To proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ. If you don't know what Jesus meant when he said to Nicodemus, a religious person a religious but unregenerate person who came to see Jesus by night, Jesus said to him, you must, not you should, but you must be born again. Jesus said, "I'm the way, the truth, and life. No one comes to the Father except through me. There is salvation and no one else for there's no other name under heaven by which we must be saved." There's lots of these binary statements in Scripture.

You need to know I think four things:

1) GOD - That God created you in your mother's womb, to be a worshiper of His. This is the high and holy and good and sovereign God of this universe that we're created to worship and obey Him.

2) MAN - If you haven't done that, walk yourself through the Ten Commandments sometime. Have you ever had any other God before the true God? Have you ever told a lie? Have you ever lusted after someone who's not your spouse? Have you ever hated someone in your heart? Have you always honored your parents? Have you ever coveted? I mean, we all fall short of that. That's why the Bible says, For all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. And the wages of that sin is death. Not just physical death, we all are going to physically die. But this is an eternal separation from God-death. There's no way we can get out of this. We've already accrued this great sin debt against God, and no matter if you live the rest of your life perfect, you still have this great debt. So we are in a helpless and hopeless situation before this holy God.

3) CHRIST - But God is so gracious. I think you quoted this passage from Romans 5:8. "God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." "God made Christ who knew no sin, to be sin on our behalf so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him." (2 Corinthians 5:21) So there's a call to knowing who God is, who we are, who Christ is.

4) RESPONSE - How do we respond to this information? The first thing Jesus said in His ministry was, Repent, and believe in the gospel. These aren't two separate things. Belief in the Gospel, belief in who Jesus Christ is and what He did for you on the cross in paying the penalty for your sin and satisfying God's wrath and justice over your sin and God accounting His perfect righteousness to you, this is something that must be believed by faith.

When you do that you actually repent. You realize you're a sinner, and you want to turn from your sin and God gives you the ability to do that. So, if you have never done that, if you've never been born again, as Jesus said, think about that.

What does it profit a man to gain the whole world? If you could possibly gain the whole world. Many of these people, Klaus Schwab, they haven't even gained the whole world. What is a profit if you could gain the whole world, but if you lose your soul? There's nothing. That is the most important issue. How can we as sinful men and men and women be made right with a holy God?

So just urging you if you are not right with God, it's great to understand all these things, but you need to be on God's side. Because there's victory after victory after victory. The Bible says in Romans 10, you won't be disappointed, you won't be put to shame when you come to true saving faith.

Alex, I want to thank you for coming to St. Paul tonight to Beacon of Hope church. A compelling presentation. Very different by the way than you hear on conservative media because of the biblical worldview you bring to it and the gospel as well. Really glad the event concluded with the gospel. You know, you can be informed of current events. But being spiritually born again is the absolute most important thing.

Thank you David. It has really been a pleasure to be here tonight.
